The Arlington Cup Horse Race

Dear Members,

I am pleased to announce that we will watch the Arlington Cup Horse Race from the Special VIP room at the Hanshin Racetrack by courtesy of JRA. The Arlington Cup Horse Race is held to commemorate the sister treaty between the Hanshin Racetrack and the Arlington Racetrack, IL in the United States. Also, there will be a short lecture by a JRA staff on the tips of betting and a casual style reception will be held after the race.

The number of participant is limited to 45, and if the turnout exceeds 45, we will have a draw.(*) In applying for this event, a JASO member can have one guest.

I look forward to your participation in this event.

* The draw will be made by the unit of application i.e. Applicants in pair will not be broken.

Date: Saturday, March 1, 2014 13:30 - 17:00 (door opens at 13:00)

Venue: The Hanshin Racetrack (Hankyu Nigawa Station)
* Please use the public transportation.
